AT BRYN MAWR COLLEGE

A close-up photograph of a wooden platter of food. The main focus is a large portion of dark, glazed ribs garnished with fresh green herbs. To the left of the ribs are several thick slices of roasted tomatoes. In the background, a white bowl contains a dark, thick sauce, and a paper-lined basket holds golden french fries topped with melted cheese. To the right of the ribs is a baked potato topped with melted cheese and bacon bits. The entire scene is set against a dark background.
